

Available online at www.sciencedirect.com

Historia Mathematica 33 (2006) 528

HISTORIA MATHEMATICA

www.elsevier.com/locate/yhmat

Papers to appear in forthcoming issues

Giovanni Ferraro. Convergence and formal manipulation in the theory of series from 1730 to 1815

Christopher Cullen. The Suàn shù shū 算數書, “Writings on reckoning”: Rewriting the history of early Chinese mathematics in the light of an excavated manuscript

Sloan Evans Despeaux. Launching mathematical research without a formal mandate: The role of university-affiliated journals in Britain, 1837–1870

Jeffrey A. Oaks and Haitham M. Alkhateeb. Simplifying equations in Arabic algebra

Luís Miguel Carolino. Cristoforo Borri and the epistemological status of mathematics in seventeenth-century Portugal